IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Wedding Just Announced.
The Louisville Evening Post of March 2 says:

"Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Georgia Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, of Paducah, to Mr. Gilmore Berry, of Louisville, on Tuesday, February 25. The wedding was very quiet, only the relatives and a few intimate friends being present.

"Mr. and Mrs. Berry are now in the city, where they will make their home."

Charming D. A. R. Colonial Reception

The Colonial Tea given by Paducah chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at the home of Mrs. W. A. Gardner yesterday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, was a beautiful occasion and a large number of guests were present. The house was most attractive in all of its appointments. The double doorway leading from the hall into the parlor was encircled in American flags and the decorations were patriotic throughout. Quaint colonial costumes and powdered hair worn by the chapter hostesses added to the picturesque brilliancy of the scene.

Receiving with Mrs. Gardner in the double parlors were: The Rev. G. T. Sullivan, D. D., Mrs. Eli Boone, Mrs. Maurice B. Nash, Mrs. Hubbard S. Wells, Mrs. Luke Russell, Mrs. Samuel Brown Pulliam, Mrs. S. B. Moore, Mrs. Fannie Allard, Mrs. Sallie Morrow.

In the reception hall were: Miss Emily Morrow, Mrs. Leslie Soule, Mrs. L. O. Walker, Mrs. James Baldwin, Mrs. George B. Hart.

The dining room was most effective in its decorations. The table was artistically appointed. The centerpiece was a large basket of red carnations, the handle tied with a big bow of red ribbon. Fern leaves were gracefully scattered over the table. The bonbonniers held red and white mints. A delightful salad course luncheon was served. Mrs. Lloyd Boswell poured the coffee. Receiving at the dining-room door were Mrs. L. S. DuBois and Mrs. Kitty Willis in colonial costume. Assisting in the dining-room were: Mrs. Mildred Davis, Mrs. Charles K. Wheeler, Miss Helen Lowry and Miss Willie Willis.

At the front door Miss Edith Sherrill and Louise Campbell greeted the guests. A feature of the entertainment was the Liberty dance given by Little La Verne Purcell, in a costume of red, white and blue.

Pretty Party for Miss Mitchell.
Mrs. C. J. Mitchell, of 1623 Harrison street, charmingly entertained on Monday evening in honor of her niece, Miss Fannie Mitchell, who leaves soon for a sojourn in the west for her health.

Music and games were the diversions of the evening. A beautiful three-course luncheon was served in the artistically decorated dining room. A color-scheme of red and white was prettily carried out. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Mitchell, Misses Lena Graves, Myrtle Jones, Chesley Gregory, Katie Winfrey, Fannie Mitchell; Messrs. T. J. Stahl, Walter Winfrey, John H. Hugg, Polk Graves, Melvin Houseman, John Rook, Master Lloyd Mitchell.

Farewell Party to Miss Reeves.

Louis Mingus and Lester Walker were the hosts at a farewell party given last night in compliment to Miss Bibian Reeves, at the home of Miss Rudy Card, on North Third street. Miss Reeves left this morning at 9:30 o'clock for St. Louis for an extended stay. The hours, from 7:30 to 10:30, were pleasantly spent with varied games. Delightful refreshments were served. Those present were: Ruby Card, Bibian Reeves, Mattie Belle Clined, Esther Bamberg, Jennie Belle George, Ethel Doup, Francis Card, Hattie Lee, Bessie Walker.

When a customer asks, "What's the newest styles for business suits?"

We can point to four different styles from one to four buttons, and every one designed by an artistic tailor who studied the trend of fashions for young men.

Our spring line is now ready for your inspection.

U. D. C. Chapter Has Interesting Meeting.

Paducah chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, met yesterday afternoon at the Woman's club house with Mrs. Roy McKimney as the hostess. It was an interesting and largely attended meeting, with several visitors present. In the absence of the president and vice-president, Mrs. McKimney presided.

Routine business and reports occupied the attention of the chapter in opening. It was agreed to co-operate with the other U. D. C. chapters through the south in any work undertaken to relieve the family of James Ryder Randall, the author of "Maryland, My Maryland," who have been left in a destitute condition by his death. Eight new members were received into the chapter.

The literary and musical program was especially attractive. Mrs. W. C. Gray sang with sympathetic charm. Mrs. James Young recited very delightfully a clever little civil war poem written by her sister, Mrs. Horace H. Clough, entitled "Saved By a Kiss." Mrs. W. G. Whitefield gave a splendid paper bearing on "Military Manoeuvres Around Paducah." Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the program.

Three members of the chapter, now living out of the city, were present: Mrs. H. H. Clough, Mrs. James A. Young, Mrs. Albert Bishop, Mr. W. G. Whitefield, of the James T. Walbert camp, U. C. V., was also an appreciated visitor.

Miss Mary K. Sowell will be the April hostess of the chapter at the Woman's club.

Birthday Party for Miss McKay.

Miss Grace McKay entertained some of her friends with a delightful birthday party at her home on North Sixth street. Light refreshments were served. Among those present were: Misses Alma and Pearl Mayhew, Leona Wells, Fannie and Dora Ashby, Fannie and Annie Artist; Messrs. Arthur Ashby, Clarence Redwine, Ed McKay, Charley Miller, Charley Davis, Perry Garvey, Walter Burton, Elmer Forest, Finis Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. A. Joiner, Mr. and Mrs. P. Joiner, and Mr. and Mrs. D. Fletcher.

Chess, Checker and Whist Club.

The annual smoker and election of the Chess, Checker and Whist club will be held in the club rooms tonight. At the conclusion of the business session and program J. G. Hood, of Boston, Mass., the fancy pool expert, will give an exhibition and probably play with some of the local celebrities.
